More than 50 years after Bruno Gröning died in January 1959 the Bruno Gröning Foundation was given the right of use by Josette Montesinos (formerly Gröning) to publish the diary-like notes about the last three years at the side of Germany's most famous faith-healer: The three pocket calendars 1956, 1957 and 1958. An enormous wealth of information. Almost every day there is a lot of information to be found. Where Bruno Gröning stayed? With whom he met? What exactly did he do? The first opportunity to publish this one of a kind of historical document as a book thus giving us a unique and detailed insight into the life of the great spiritual person Bruno Gröning during this historical period.

- sort of a reader, research/reference work and foto-documentary all in one
- 209 fotos, 52 in color, with info on date and place where fotos were taken
