

Incessantly flowing healing power ...

– ud, 1960

Shortly after Bruno Gröning's return to the empire of light, from where he once had come, we paid Mrs. Josette Gröning a visit at her home (which doesn't exist anymore today).

At the entrance to the hallway, a vivid portrait of the deceased looked at us, and we immediately felt a peculiar fluidum in the entire room, a vibration that shut our mouths - but the inside opened for all that happened in the invisible.

Very much did happen!

Blessed is he who has eyes to see – inner eyes!

One must not talk about it. Otherwise false rumors could arise again; the voracious Medusa's head of the press might again receive new nourishment, which would be transformed into toxic constituents ... But we were granted to absorb the vibration!

And we felt more than in any other flat, much more!

There we stood in front of his armchair. Everything was still the way it always had been during his lifetime. A blue jacket of Gröning's hung over the back as if casually, on the little table next to it was the pair of glasses, the watch and a gold chain with a small cross, which he always had carried with him. A small cross - next to an invisible big cross that rested on his shoulders – the heavy cross of many diseases of the people, at the bar of which in addition hung the lead weights of persecution, ridicule and down-pulling by a controlled press, the accusations of which and the spiteful machinations of medical and different kinds of opponents.

A black ribbon Mrs. Josette Gröning had stretched over the chair, as a sign of mourning, and hence no one should sit in this armchair.

In the room you saw flowers placed in several vases – they were not decayed, not rotted, since many, many weeks! They retained a lot of their color, the petals didn't fall off, they felt almost like straw flowers after the drying process - and yet they expressed something alive. The water, in which they stood, was completely clear with no odor!

A new miracle!

And yet no wonder – because it's just a proof of the continually working irradiation area of the divine healing power!

We had later experienced this proof innumerable times, as we often visited Mrs. Gröning. On these occasions We always brought with us flowers, and again and again this was confirmed before our eyes; even at the time when Mrs. Gröning no longer lived in her former apartment in Plochingen-Stumpenhof.

A nice example for those who say, Bruno Gröning "no longer exists", what are we supposed to deal with him anymore? As a matter of fact, all they needed to do, is – in the impersonal sense – tuning into the healing power, into the beautiful "IT" and they would again obtain direct contact with this good helper.

It depends, therefore, very much upon the undogmatic and not fanatically oriented attitude, in loving willingness to absorb in oneself GOD's healing currents. Whosoever unlock themselves, will always find the direct way to an otherworldly friend and helper. Then, they will say: 'Your faith has helped you!

Even more wonders could happen at this chair, which is "spoken to" by the divine healing power. Cures of many, many ill people would take place!

However, Bruno Gröning doesn't want anymore "hype". He has indeed shown people the path, how they can set up connection to GOD even without him. This report is an evidence for that.

Later, the chair is going to stand among other things at a Bruno-Gröning-memorial that will be built at a later time.

In his writings PARACELsus has among other things pointed out, that you must call such radiant locations "pure loci", because the water of life, i.e. the mental-spiritual radiance, constantly continues to flow as a healing power from above, incessantly, for all eternity!
